DAVIS THEATRE.

Complete Change of Programme Today—Margaret Fischer in "The Masterpiece." Infatuation, in Four Parts—Dancing Harmonists Vaudeville.

There will be a complete change of programme at this popular theatre to-day and the feature attraction is the four part masterpiece called "Infatuation," featuring beautiful Margaret Fischer and Harry Pollard. Infatuation is adapted from the famous novel of the same name, by Lloyd Osbourne, and is the story of a young society girl who falls in love with a ten-twenty thirty actor and makes a real hero out of a poor fellow. The story is a comedy, and the play is a comedy. Margaret Fischer, the sprightly black haired star of the screen, plays the leading role—the role of the love hungry girl—and a capable cast of American favorites support her in this great feature. This is a strong story enacted in a powerful way and one that is sure to appeal to all. The Diamond from the Sky will also be shown today and this chapter is one that you cannot afford to miss as many strange and startling things begin to happen in this chapter of this great serial.

The vaudeville attraction for today and Saturday is the Four Dancing Harmonists, vaudeville's most versatile male quartette. This is an act that you will like, for they sing well, have good comedy, and know how to dance.

On Saturday only, the management of the Davis announce for the special attraction, Theda Bara in "The Two Orphans," a six reel Fox feature, claimed to be one of the best productions of the season. Be sure and see it.

IN OLD KENTUCKY.

At the Davis Friday Matinee and Night.

The return of one of America's most popular dramas—In Old Kentucky—is scheduled for an early date in this city. Since In Old Kentucky has its first performance, many fans have come to the American stage, as they have to other acts, and the Davis drama has had its first, farce comedy arrived, departed and returned again; the problem play had its innings and the show girl has romped in musical

NORWICH TOWN

Surprise Party for Mrs. Albert Wagner—Requiem Mass for Martin Burns—Briefs and Personal.

Thirty young people under the guidance of Miss Mary D. McNulty and Miss Lovina Meehan surprised Mrs. Albert Wagner by appearing at her door on West Town street Saturday evening. They were made most welcome and all kinds of Halloween games and tricks were enjoyed. Miss Nora Harris gave vocal selections most acceptably. Sandwiches, cake, fruit punch and ice cream were served by the victors in the evening.

Requiem Mass for Martin Burns. There was a large attendance Wednesday morning at St. Sacred Heart church when at 9 o'clock a requiem high mass was celebrated for Martin Burns, late of Yantic, by Rev. C. W. Brennan. At the offertory the Requiem was rendered by Miss May Pouch, who sang the requiem hymn, "Sweet Day." The choir sang the Gregorian mass very impressively, directed by Miss Elizabeth Malone, organist.

Ten Miles Hike. Sunday a party of eight walked the ten miles from Greenville to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hansen on the road to the north. The party were Mrs. William Fleming, daughters Elizabeth, Mabel and Agnes, and sons William and Carl Fleming. The return was by automobile.

At Colchester Wedding. Miss Gladys Goble of the Scotland road was married Wednesday, where she attended the wedding of her cousin, Miss Florence Beebe, and Dennis Bissell.

Clear-up Day for Green. A force of seven men, with a team, will work Wednesday making and carrying off the leaves on the Green.

New York Guest. John Unsett of New York is visiting John McEnnett at his home on Peck's Corner.

Short Paragraphs. F. Lindore Olcott of Washington street is in Lebanon this week, inspecting the road.

Mrs. George Crabbe of Franklin is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank S. Avery, of West Town street.

Mrs. Henry Gule of West Town street left Wednesday for a week's visit with friends in Voluntown.

Charles H. Marsh of Town street has secured employment in New London, spending the week ends here.

Mrs. Chappell has left for New London after three weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Henry Gule, of West Town street.

David and Michael Shahan, who have been working in Hartford some time past, have returned and will be employed at the Hopkins & Allen plant.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Beebe of New Haven and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Beebe, of the Scotland road has been named Donald Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lindsey of Hartford, while here to attend the funeral of Mr. Lindsey's uncle, Harry Lord, visited Mrs. Lindsey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Beebe, at Pine Tree farm.

actress love affair and marriage with a number of supporting members more, Lillian Gish and many others. One of the big spectacles in this film is the sensational dance of the Flying Hours, in which there are employed over fifty professional dancers. The whole production is made under the direction of D. W. Griffith, the producer of the "Birth of a Nation." In fact it is Mrs. Henry Walthall, the hero of today's feature, who is the central figure of "Birth of a Nation."

Richard Travers, the leading man of "The Rosary," is the hero in the massive Esplanade feature, "The Man from the East." In this production, Mr. Travers is playing the part of a young man whose recovered courage, after a childhood of cowardice is tested by medicine and automobile race for supremacy. It is a picture throbbing with wild excitement, as well as a beautiful society story. "The Pay Train" is the title of a big railroad picture, featuring Helen Holmes of the Hazards of Helen, and "The Talking of Mustang Pete" the comedy.

Clara Kimball Young, Saturday, in "Hearts in Exile," World film.

AT THE AUDITORIUM. Three New Acts and the Broken Coin Today.

A fine new vaudeville show has been booked for today and the remainder of the week with the Banjo Trio in the headline place. This trio consists of three men appearing as three fellows who play banjos and the piano in a No. 1 style and come here highly recommended by the many vaudeville critics. Mae Nash is the possessor of a fine soprano voice who will render several song numbers and "The Broken Coin" will be shown again this Saturday of this week a fine Paramount five reel feature by the Famous Players' company and taken from Clyde Fitch's powerful drama, "The Moth and the Flame," has been secured.

For Monday and Tuesday next will be the popular favorite Elsie Janis will be seen on the Paramount program and the country and the Thrill. The cast includes many well known names, that of Owen Moore perhaps being the most prominent.

ARTHUR CHATTERDOWN ALL NEXT WEEK.

Eight great plays will be presented at the Davis theatre next week commencing Monday. They are all famous; all attractive and presented by Arthur Chatterdown, surrounded by a company of actors and actresses who are artists. There will be a daily matinee, and the theatre will be open to children when bills of equal interest will be offered.

This busy week will be under the auspices of Arthur Chatterdown, an organization of the kind that has been able to present the greatest plays of the day with every detail complete at popular prices. The Arthur Chatterdown company has been scoring success in the theatre of the country and is considered the foremost organization playing week ends.
